

General Education Mission Statement

The purpose of the General Education Program at Westmont College is to lay a foundation for a liberal arts education and to nurture academic breadth and skills designed to foster intellectual vitality, expansive sympathies, Christian character, and commitment to service that will last a lifetime.