Finals Survival Kit

The end of the fall semester will be here before you know it and your son or daughter will undoubtedly be overwhelmed by the added stresses of finals week in December! In order to provide a respite during this tense time, the student-led Emmaus Road program would like to offer a special opportunity for you to be a part of helping your student get through this stressful week. On the study day prior to finals, our global ministry team will be delivering wildly popular care packages containing fabulous treats and fun toys to your student's room as an encouraging reminder that you are thinking of them during this busy time. A personalized note from you will be delivered with the care package.

Kits are $20 each and will be delivered Monday, December 11th must be ordered by Friday, December 8. Survival Kits are also available in the spring semester. Place a secure order for your student at:
