- MESA goes to Berkeley
One day conference this Saturday.
Information:

We are taking three to four members of the Multi-Ethnic Student Association up to UC Berkeley for the Mixed@Berkeley fall conference put on by the Mixed@Berkeley Recruitment and Retention Center and the Multicultural Community Center. We will be leaving by car on Friday the 18th and returning Sunday the 20th. The conference is Saturday the 19th from 10am to 3:30pm. After the conference we are planning to meet with a mixed Westmont Alumni (Sara Gowing) who is in her Master's Program at SF State to see what critical mixed race studies looks like after undergrad. Sunday, before we return to Westmont we will worship with Redeemer Community Church in San Francisco a multi-ethnic church community who is living out "multi-dimensional love as a reconciled community living out the way of the cross" in San Francisco (Church Website).

Matters of Consideration

- Edee's house tomorrow night (President Anderson)
 - 7:00 pm meeting at Edee's house
- GLC Jesus Art (Senator Fisk)
 - Student Panel rather than a faculty panel
- Montecito Beautification Day (CM Viscuglia)
- WCSA works with the local event chair to recruit students to participate in this community building event. In the past, a handful of WCSA members plus other students have attended to represent Westmont.

- NYT Program (President Anderson)
- Program that westmont subscribes to that is open to everyone. It is an independent subscription for anyone with a Westmont.edu email.
- If this a hit they will cut their subscription to the New York times
